

Vindication Through the Gospel

Matthew 5:38-42

1. Our vindication is the _____, not retaliation.

- For more study on the “eye for eye...tooth for tooth” principle see Exodus 21, Leviticus 24, and Deuteronomy 19.
- Our vindication is the _____. Our nature is _____.
- We are freed to love amidst personal offense because _____ is our vindication.

2. Because our vindication is the _____, and not retaliation, our demeanor as we face _____ should be a _____ reflection of the _____.

Four provocative examples of how not to resist one who is evil:

- _____ amidst humiliation (v. 39).
- _____ amidst personal loss (v. 40).
- _____ amidst injustice or inconvenience (v. 41).
- _____ amidst unfavorable requests (v. 42).

Scriptures for personal study to evaluate how well you are living
Matthew 5:38-42: Luke 6:22-23, 1 Corinthians 4:12-13, 2 Corinthians 12:10

Vindication Through the Gospel

Matthew 5:38-42

1. Our vindication is the _____, not retaliation.

- For more study on the “eye for eye...tooth for tooth” principle see Exodus 21, Leviticus 24, and Deuteronomy 19.
- Our vindication is the _____. Our nature is _____.
- We are freed to love amidst personal offense because _____ is our vindication.

2. Because our vindication is the _____, and not retaliation, our demeanor as we face _____ should be a _____ reflection of the _____.

Four provocative examples of how not to resist one who is evil:

- _____ amidst humiliation (v. 39).
- _____ amidst personal loss (v. 40).
- _____ amidst injustice or inconvenience (v. 41).
- _____ amidst unfavorable requests (v. 42).

Scriptures for personal study to evaluate how well you are living
Matthew 5:38-42: Luke 6:22-23, 1 Corinthians 4:12-13, 2 Corinthians 12:10